Editorial Note

This Index Volume is the fulfilment of a promise made in our January 2001 issue to publish an Analytical Index of subjects treated in Jeevadhara Vols I - XXX (1971-2000) inclusive, in answer to the many requests received here from several quarters. It will be sent to all our subscribers at a nominal price.

We owe a lot of thanks to Rev. Bro. Carmel SSP who stayed with us one full year and, besides his other services, went through all the sixty volumes (30 English and 30 Malayalam = 180+180 issues), making a list of topics and sub-topics treated therein. All credit to him. We are well aware of the shortcomings which could have been made good only with the help of modern technology.

Jeevadhara hardly goes out of date. Many of the topics therein dealt with are still relevant and so there have been constant demands for its back copies. Prophets seldom die and their light ever shines. There have been several attempts at blowing its light out, but none have succeeded. We still carry on the torch of Truth and Freedom with continued vigour, in spite of our limitations of means and material resources. In fact these limitations are our strength.

- Dr. George Soares Prabhu sj

“Jeevadhara is one of the most interesting and provocative theological journals in the world today.”

- Dr. William Cenkner,
Catholic University of America

“Jeevadhara is unique among Indian theological journals. It has by now ably shown that it excels in its excellent editorship, scholarly articles, masterly presentation....”

- J. M. in The Examiner

“Jeevadhara is perhaps the only theological journal in India where we can express our religious reflections freely.”

- Dr. Sebastian Painadath sj

“I have been struck by the enormous contribution Jeevadhara has made to theological thinking in India.”

- Dr. Felix Wilfred
